EASTER MILLINERY.—Miss M. B. Clark is receiving daily ready-to-wear and dress hats at most reasonable prices. Call on her before going elsewhere.

—The alumnae of the Millersburg Female College closed its series of lyceum entertainments at the opera house Saturday night with the Italian orchestra concert. The entire series was good and the investment made by holders of season tickets was a profitable one. The entertainment of Saturday night was by far the best, every performer was an artist, every number was enjoyed by all. It was perhaps the best entertainment of the kind ever given here.

THEATRICAL.

YANKEE DOODLE STOCK CO.

—The Yankee Doodle Stock Company opened a three nights' engagement at the Paris Grand last night with a good house. They put on "Anita, the Singing Girl," and it proved more than satisfactory. This is one of the best repertoire companies on the road and the press is high in its praise of them wherever they have appeared. See advertisement in another column.

"BUSTER BROWN" COMING.

—The management of the Paris Grand has secured as its attraction "Buster Brown," the master success of the year in the somewhat overcrowded field of musical comedy. "Buster Brown" needs no introducing in our community, we all know his face—all the children have worn clothes fashioned after his. It needs only be said that this is a third and all new edition of the musical comedy in every feature. The scenery, costumes, music and songs are spic and span with newness, while the cast headed by Jimmie Rosen, the little chap who fairly exudes mirth, is away and ahead of any yet seen we are promised. Buster should be largely welcomed.

Central Kentucky Shriners Organize.

"Oleika Temple of the Mystic Shrine" is the new name selected for the Central Kentucky Shrine at a large and enthusiastic meeting of Shriners Assembled in Masonic Hall, Lexington, Saturday night.

The question of the name of the Shrine was the first order of business and a number of suitable Arabic names were submitted. "Oleika," the name of an oasis in the Arabian desert, was selected as the name of the new Shrine.

The election of officers was the next order, and the following were selected: W. J. Cardwell, Illustrious Potentate.

John G. Cramer, Chief Rabbat.
G. Allison Holland, Assistant Chief Rabbat.

Charles M. Harris, of Versailles, High Priest and Prophet.

J. T. Jackson, of Georgetown, Oriental Guide.

H. F. Wilkerson, Treasurer.
V. G. Colis, Recorder.

C. A. McMillan, of Paris, First Ceremonial Master.

D. P. Eastin, Second Ceremonial Master.

J. E. Knocke, Director.
R. J. H. Spurr, Marshal.

R. C. Stockton, of Richmond, Captain of the Guard.

Oscar Lyne, Outer Guard.

The officers were distributed to representatives of several Blue Grass cities, Versailles, Georgetown, Paris and Richmond, being represented.

Application will at once be made to the Imperial Potentate of the United States for a dispensation to start to work and it is expected that this will be received in due time to work up a Ceremonial Session for the Fourth of July, at which time a great number of novices will be escorted across the hot sands of the Desert of Lexington.

Among those from Paris who were present were: Chas. R. James, C. A. McMillan, W. M. Hinton, Jr., Talbot Clay, J. Q. Ward and J. H. Ewalt.

Flowers.

For the benefit of those who do not find it convenient to come to the Greenhouse, we will have our wagon in town each Saturday in front of Agricultural Bank, filled with all kinds of fancy and bedding plants, also bulbs.
